MEDICINAL.

THE FIRSTBORN.

Why is it that the firstborn child is so often the healthiest of a family of children? The reason seems to suggest itself. As child follows child the mother has less and less vitality; often not enough for herself and none, therefore, for her child.

Expectant mothers who use Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription find that it keeps them in vigorous health. They eat well, sleep well and are not nervous. When baby comes its advent is practically painless, and the mother is made happy by the birth of a healthy child. If you would be a firstborn when I looked forward to becoming a mother, I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting, and I felt so terribly sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce, and he told me to get his "Favorite Prescription" and a bottle of "Golden Medical Discovery." I got a bottle of each, and when I had taken them a few days, I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble (I could not do anything before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine, and I tell all who tell me they are sick, to get these medicines, or write to Dr. Pierce.

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure biliousness and sick headache.

THROUGH WHIRLPOOL RAPIDS.

While there were a large number of people who witnessed the second swim of Carlisle D. Graham through the lower rapids of the gorge in the whirlpool to Lewinsville, yesterday afternoon, there were a still larger number who did not see him. The reason for this is because the greater number believed Graham would swim the whirlpool rapids, which is that portion of the tumbling waters between the railroad bridges and the whirlpool. It was in this part of the river that Capt. Matthew Webb lost his life, July 24, 1883. Graham has been through whirlpool rapids in a barrel several times, and knows too much about them to risk his life there without proper protection. The cliffs and bridges were lined with humanity, but all above the whirlpool saw nothing of the performance yesterday. Graham went down the gorge early in the afternoon. He dressed for his swim by putting on a life preserver and a life ring. A crowd stood about him. He entered the water on the American side of the whirlpool. At a signal from a man in charge of a moving picture machine installed on a flat car that all was ready, Graham walked into the river at 3:30 o'clock. The current picked him up and in ten minutes he was being hurled down stream and through the long, sweeping water that form at the outlet river pocket. After passing this he floated in comparatively quiet water for a mile or more until he reached Foster's flats, where old fishermen say it is "the naiciest bit of water between the two lakes." Graham met the waves bravely. He bounded into them and went out of sight. It seemed minutes before he reappeared to the anxious people who were waiting. When he had left Foster's flats behind Graham had an easy task, and he floated with the current, now and then turning and throwing his arms about. The route he took was well over toward the Canadian side to avoid the rocky ledges along the American shore. Opposite Queenstown Heights men in a boat gave him a tow at the end of a rope. Nearing the dock he again began to swim, and was cheered by the people when he landed. This was Graham's second swim from the pool to Lewinsville, his first having been made September last. While attempting this feat James Scott lost his life August 19, 1886.

BIBLE "IMPROPER LITERATURE."

Carlton F. Hodge, editor of the Assumption, Ill., Independent, is threatened with prosecution for publishing improper literature because he has undertaken to print the Bible in his newspaper.

When he reached one of the last chapters of Genesis in the publication of the Bible on the weekly installment plan Mr. Hodge received a letter from a prominent official of the St. Joseph County Savings Bank at South Bend, Ind., informing him that the appearance of such "matter" in a newspaper was illegal and he threatened to start a law suit.

Editor Hodge, said Thursday that he proposed to continue printing a chapter of the Bible each week in his paper despite this threat.

"It is to chapters of Genesis and Deuteronomy that the bank officials object," said Mr. Hodge. "He wrote me a letter, saying there were spots and places in the Bible that were not fit to be put before the public for perusal. For my part, I consider anything that is fit to be the basis of Christianity and to be taught to the children in the Sunday school is good enough to be submitted to newspaper readers along with news items of the day."

GALEITIES AT NEWPORT.—Newport was keyed last week almost to the bursting point. The principal event was Mrs. William Astor's great ball Thursday evening at her enlarged villa, Beechwood. Three or four functions have been given there this season which surpassed it in elaborateness, but not one approached it in richness and stateliness. Her new ballroom is decorated in Louis XVI style, white and gold being the prevailing colors. The next important affair was the lawn performance of "The White Rose," which opened Monday evening by Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, jr., at Bantline. The idea of bringing a professional cast was simple enough in itself, and had been proposed before without having been tried. The cost of the entertainment has been absurdly exaggerated, a large discount being credited on the bill for society advertising, but the innovation has made a record in local annals that will be troublesome to surpass next season.

The Third Largest Happening of the Week was Mrs. Ogden Goetz's ball at Ochre Court Wednesday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss May Goetz, which ranked second in point of exclusiveness among the season's entertainments to date.

HOLMAN A CO-RESPONDENT.

George P. Holman, son of Judge Holman, of Fluvanna county, is figuring not only as the defendant in a case in which attempted criminal assault is charged, but he is also named as co-respondent in a divorce suit, and it is rather an odd coincidence that at the very time the trial of the young man was going on in the Richmond Police Court Thursday his name was being frequently mentioned in the suit for divorce of Mr. W. G. Lambert against his wife, which was given a partial hearing in the Chancery Court Thursday. Depositions were taken from Holman in the Richmond jail a few days ago by the attorneys for Mr. and Mrs. Lambert. From evidence in the divorce case it seems that Holman had known Mrs. Lambert for several months.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully, and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodol cures, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: "Kodol has cured me. I consider it the best remedy ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians. Kodol saved my life. Take it after meals. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons."
